Pusion Conventions. Two great National Conventions are to be holden on the 22d Feb, inst, to organize and lay down platforms for their several parti-

bles at Pittsburgh, and will be attended by delegates from a large number of States, both East and West. It will take into consideration the interests of Abolitionism, and mark out the plan of operations for the action of that wing of the Fusion party, in the next Presidential canvass. Whether it will go so far as to nominate Presidential candidates, or not at present is uncertain.

The American, or Know Nothing Convention, in a public capacity, will be organized at Philadelphia on the same day, and for similar purposes as that of the Abolitionists, at Pittsburgh, so far as the interests of the Hindoo wing are concerned.

This assemblage of Know Nothings has be a very difficult task to accomplish, and one which can never be thoroughly carried out. - nore the question of slavery, as being entireof Know Nothingism, and as being calculated to separate the two geographical sections of the party. The GREELEY Northern Aboli that to abandon the slavery issue in the New England States, Sam's forces would dwindle into total insignificance. A part of the labor of this Convention was to have been to nominate their Presidential candidates; but for the fear that they have not secured sufficient nation vet, it is now supposed that the time of nominating their candidates will be postported as being present already, and it i if they can will effect a postponement. WM. SHEETS, Esq., of Indiana, is there, and
